

Bio:

Lian-Hee Wee is a theoretical phonologist who is excited about experimental methods. His linguistic pursuits were initially motivated by his curiosity in theatre and music; both areas he failed, but doggedly pursue as part of his research agenda as well as a pastime. His publications include six co-authored/edited volumes and numerous articles.